

Stephanie Chedid
President/Chief Executive Officer – Luther Manor

Stephanie Chedid is President & CEO of Luther Manor, A Life Plan Community in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin offering the full spectrum of senior services from independent living to hospice. As a non-profit, faith-based organization, Luther Manor has been caring for seniors since the 1960s. Stephanie is the third CEO in the organization's history and its first female leader. In her role, she guides an exceptional team of leaders who are responsible for nearly 500 residents, 420 employees and 300 volunteers. Luther Manor is among the largest Life Plan Communities in the State of Wisconsin and provides more than $4.5M in charity care a year made possible in part by grants from the Luther Manor Foundation of which Stephanie is President.

Core to the Luther Manor culture is a commitment to serve outside of the organization. Stephanie has served in numerous leadership positions with the United Way of Greater Milwaukee, including as co-chair of the Women's Leadership Council – the largest and most successful council of its kind in the nation. As an active member of LeadingAge Wisconsin, she pairs her advocacy work for seniors with that of United Way to help address issues impacting staff such as employment and financial stability.

Stephanie earned a BA in International Relations and a minor in Economics from the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee and spent nearly 20 years in the investment industry before entering the healthcare space.
